

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Holocaust was the state-sponsored, systematic persecution and annihilation of European Jewry by Nazi Germany and its collaborators between 1933 and 1945; and

WHEREAS, Jews were the primary victims — six million were murdered — and Roma, the handicapped, and Poles were also targeted for destruction or decimation for racial, ethnic, or national reasons, and millions of others, including homosexuals, Jehovah's Witnesses, Soviet prisoners of war and political dissidents, also suffered grievous oppression and death under Nazi tyranny; and

WHEREAS, the history of the Holocaust offers an opportunity to reflect on the moral responsibilities of individuals, societies and governments and to rededicate ourselves to the principles of individual freedom and a just society; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to an Act of Congress (Public Law 96-388, October 7, 1980), the United States Holocaust Memorial Council designates the Days of Remembrance of the Victims of the Holocaust to be Sunday, April 18 through Sunday, April 25, 2004, including the National Day of Remembrance known as Yom Hashoah, April 18; and

WHEREAS, the City of Alexandria will sponsor a civic ceremony for the seventeenth consecutive year commemorating the Days of Remembrance, in memory of the victims of the Holocaust, and in honor of the survivors, at noon on Friday, April 23, in Market Square; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting for the citizens of Alexandria to join in remembering the victims by attending the civic ceremony of the Holocaust and honoring its survivors by attending this ceremony;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM D. EUILLE, Mayor of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, and on behalf of the Alexandria City Council, do hereby proclaim Sunday, April 18 through Sunday, April 25, 2004, as:
